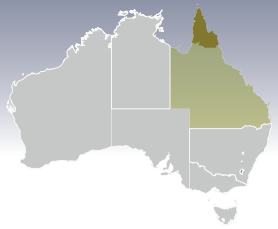
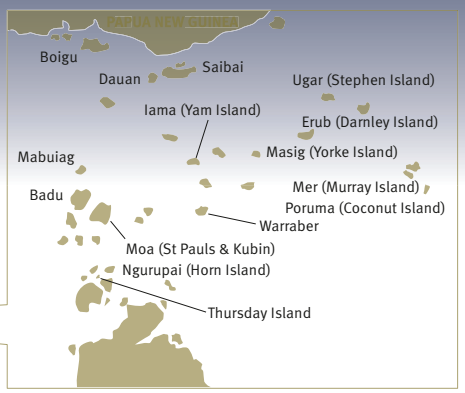
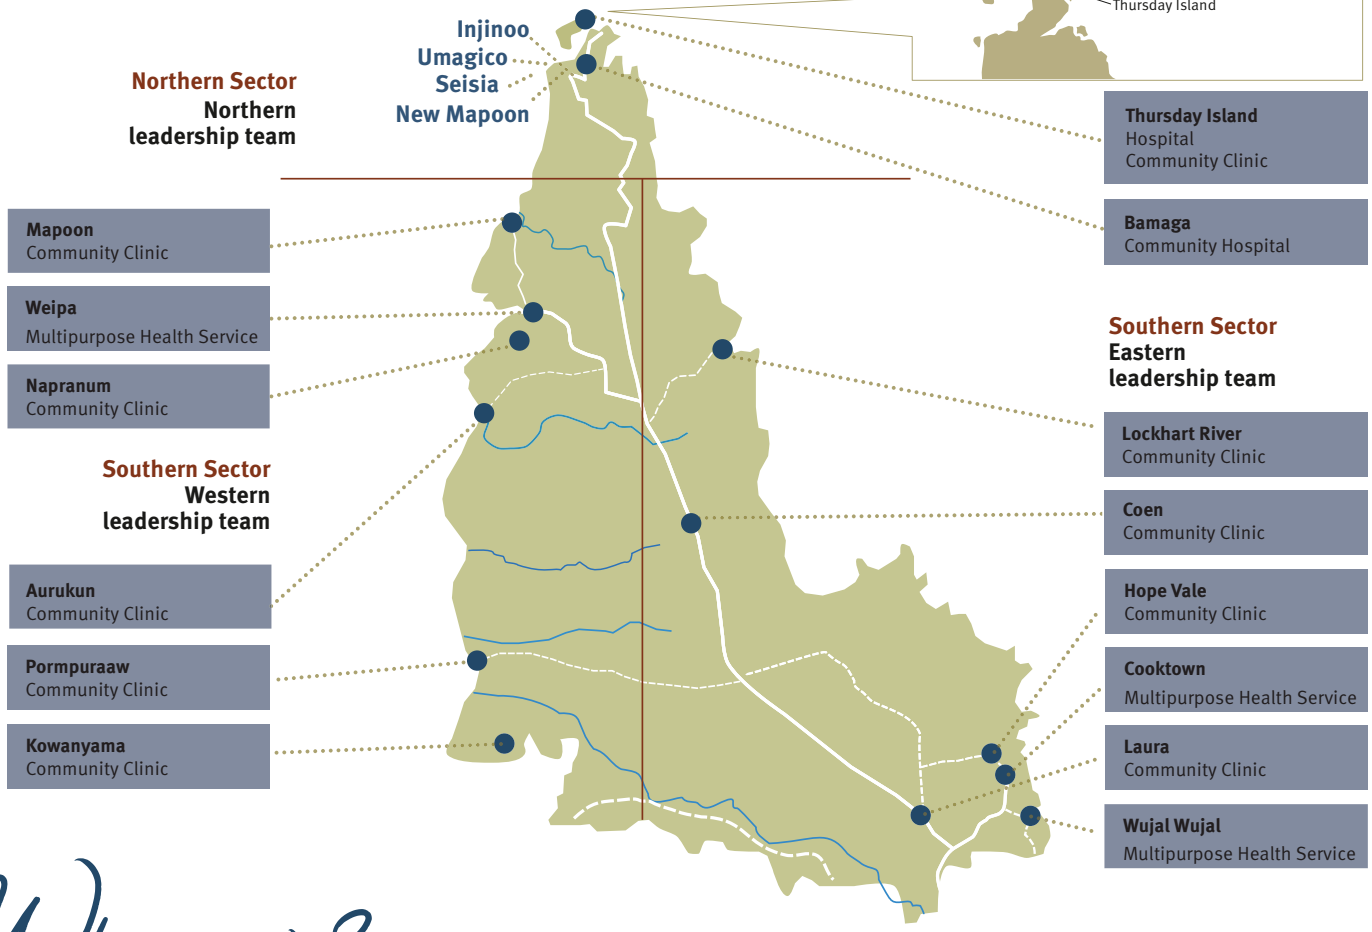
Where are we?



Outer Islands: Community Clinics

Badu	Mer (Murray Island)
Boigu	Moa (St Pauls & Kubin)
Dauan	Ngurupai (Horn Island)
Erub (Darnley Island)	Poruma (Coconut Island)
Iama (Yam Island)	Saibai
Mabuiag	Ugar (Stephen Island)
Masig (Yorke Island)	Warraber





Northern Sector
Northern leadership team

Mapoon
Community Clinic

Weipa
Multipurpose Health Service

Napranum
Community Clinic

Southern Sector
Western leadership team

Aurukun
Community Clinic

Pormpuraaw
Community Clinic

Kowanyama
Community Clinic

Thursday Island
Hospital
Community Clinic

Bamaga
Community Hospital

Southern Sector
Eastern leadership team

Lockhart River
Community Clinic

Coen
Community Clinic

Hope Vale
Community Clinic

Cooktown
Multipurpose Health Service

Laura
Community Clinic

Wujal Wujal
Multipurpose Health Service

Who are we?

The total area covered by TCHHS is 130,238km² which is approximately 8% of the total of Queensland

TCHHS employs over 1000 staff

Including over 250 First Nations people

We service up to 34 communities across Cape York, Northern Peninsular Area, and Torres Strait Islands

31 Primary Health Care Centres

2 Hospitals

1 Multipurpose Health Service

1 Integrated Health Service

The current population of the Torres and Cape HHS region is 25,018

4.9% projected population growth to 2031

61% of residents identify as First Nations

69% of residents live in a very remote location

TCHHS is the only HHS that borders another country

We share an international border with Papua New Guinea